

LIHUE STARS TO CLASH AT TENNIS

Tournament For Wall & Dougherty Trophy Will Start Next Sunday

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.)
LIHUE, October 10.—At the tennis meeting held on the Lihue courts, the all-Kaui tournament was opened with the preliminary meeting. Those having entered were present and the formal drawing for opponents took place, and arrangements were made for the first round, which will be played Sunday, October 17, on the Lihue courts.
The permanent possession of the Wall & Dougherty cup, which is at present gracing a window of the Lihue Emporium, will depend upon the winning of three tournaments. The tournaments are to be held semi-annually until the trophy is carried off. The cup committee elected Sunday consists of W. H. Grote, chairman; H. Vincent, secretary and treasurer; Doctor Glaisyer, A. G. Hine and J. P. Thompson.
The teams for next Sunday's round are as follows:
A. Horner Jr. and Harrison Rice vs. W. H. Grote and C. S. Dole.
E. Carden and P. C. Hopper vs. A. R. Glaisyer and E. C. Merrill.
W. C. Avery and F. E. McCall vs. E. D. Murdoch and J. P. Thompson.
A. G. Hine and E. Knudsen vs. J. P. Grogan and A. C. Bankham.

COLLEGIANS WILL PLAY AT MOILIILI

McKinley and Hawaii Football Elevens To Clash At Ball Grounds Next Saturday

Next Saturday the thud of kicked football and the cheers of the student rooters will again sound through Moiliili baseball park after an absence of many years. At three o'clock the football team from the McKinley High School will clash with the College of Hawaii eleven.

Both teams are training hard for the fray. Melin's men are endeavoring to correct the faults that allowed Punalou to beat them last Saturday 17 to 0, and at the college Coach Polen is making every moment count towards having Hawaii's team a finished product on Saturday. There was no rest for the squad Monday when the men usually lay off after a hard game on Saturday. Better and more varied plays were needed against Kamehameha, and it is toward this side of the game that Coach Polen has been directing his attention. Spencer, who was hurt last Saturday, has as yet not been able to appear at practice. His loss is as great as the college as Clifford Melin's will do to the High School team. The Punalou and College of Hawaii elevens plan a practice scrimmage this afternoon similar to that held a week ago Wednesday on Alexander Field. This allows the coaches an opportunity to test their men against opponents that do not know each other's signals.

The McKinley supporters will be out in force Saturday afternoon, and are counting on seeing their team give the College of Hawaii the hardest fight they have had yet.

The other game Saturday will be between Punalou and Mills School. This will be the first appearance of the team of the boys from the Mid-Pacific Institute. Saturday will be Kamehameha's day off, and will allow them to have two weeks' rest before meeting Punalou—October 23.

COACH LYMAN ROUNDING UP FOOTBALL MATERIAL

Lieut. Charles R. Lyman, Second Infantry, Fort Shafter, reports that about twenty-five candidates for the regimental football team are reporting daily for football practice at the new football field on the lower parade, near the Fort Shafter terminus of the streetcar line. Many of these are old players, and several of the new men appear to be very promising material.

PAIAS WIN TITLE OF VALLEY ISLAND

Foster Robinson Pitches His Team To Victory Over Punaene Aggregation

With the Robinson brothers, Foster pitching and Alvin catching, the Paia team of Maui won the island championship at Waialuku last Sunday afternoon from the Punaene team by a score of 7 to 1. Sueda and Cockett of Lahaina were at the points for Punaene.

Scarcely a hit was secured off the delivery of Robinson, while Sueda was hit early and often. Besides pitching great ball, Foster Robinson found one of Sueda's curves for a homerun in the fifth inning.

Following the winning of the first half of the season's games by Punaene and the second season's half by Paia, it was decided to play five games for the championship. Punaene won the first of these but Paia came back and won the next three.

The crowd was a record breaker, exceeding that of last Fourth of July, the grandstand being packed. Both sides were well supplied with rooters.

Following was the score by inning:
Paia: 1 0 0 0 2 0 2 0—7
Umpires—Dr. Boote and George Cummings.

Short Sports

The body of Prof. Ezra Ripley Thayer, dean of the Harvard law school, was found floating in the Charles river. He had been missing two days. Medical Examiner McGrath said it was a case of suicide.

Sereno S. Pratt, secretary of the New York chamber of commerce for the last four years, died at Troy. Mr. Pratt was for many years a financial editor and writer. He was fifty-seven years old.

It now looks out that Boston Bill James hurt his arm driving a bulky automobile, and not pitching a spitter, as has been surmised. The motor skidded, and before Bill could get it back on the road his arm had a kink in it. This blow, and Evers' peevish nature, just about lost the Braves the championship this year. The man who invented gasoline was no friend of baseball.

In the first year of its operation, completed September 2, the federal war risk insurance bureau wrote 1245 policies on American ships and cargoes with a risk aggregating $2,709,689, according to a report made at Washington by Director W. C. Wilsey. The net premiums received amounted to $2,004,096 and losses paid to $720,653, leaving a net balance on hand of more than $1,300,000.

Friends of Francis T. Colby, formerly a New York lawyer, received word that he had just been appointed a lieutenant in the Belgian army after having been cited in the orders of the day for bravery under fire. For the last ten months Mr. Colby has served as a leader of a motor ambulance squad attached to the Belgian army. Lieutenant Colby is a son of Rear Admiral Harrison Gray Otis Colby of the United States navy, of Boston, retired. He is known as a big game hunter in Alaska and Africa.

A fund of $200,000 is to be raised in America for the war sufferers in Poland, according to plans announced at Chicago by the Polish Central Relief Committee. Dr. B. F. Franzak, health commissioner of Buffalo, New York, is general chairman of the committee. A tax of one cent a month on every member of a Polish-American organization cooperating with the relief committee was suggested as a means of raising the fund. The committee announced that $20,000 already had been contributed to Poland within the last year.

Plans are under way for the new University of California campus building, costing $1,000,000. With the completion of these structures and the new $500,000 Wheeler Hall, now being erected, the building fund of $1,500,000 valued at the last California general election will be exhausted. The second and last to Agricultural Hall, costing $250,000, will be the largest of the buildings now being planned. The other new buildings will be a chemistry building, costing $250,000, and two additional dormitories and an addition to the University library, costing $400,000.

Efforts to raise $500,000 to pay the interest due on debenture bonds of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway Company have been successful. Judge Carpenter announced in the United States district court at Chicago, "The stockholders under the leadership of Nathan L. Muehr accomplished a task in raising the interest and preventing complications at this time that will be of great value to all concerned," said Judge Carpenter. "There is no loss of confidence in the securities on the stock exchange. The report on the physical and financial status of the road credibly will be ready by October. This will offer further encouragement and a basis for the rehabilitation of the company."

OAKS, ANGELS AND SEALS SCORE MORE RUNS THAN RIVALS

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
SAN FRANCISCO, October 14.—Oakland and Vernon played air tight ball all through their contest here yesterday afternoon, the Oaks finally sending over the only run of the game.

Score—Oakland 1, Vernon 0.
At Salt Lake, the Seals and Bees both hit hard with the Seals making their hits count. Score—San Francisco 10, Salt Lake 6.

At Los Angeles, Portland gave the Angels a hard run for the game but fell one short of what Dillon's men had. Score—Los Angeles 5, Portland 4.

BASKETBALL SEASON TO OPEN NEXT MONTH

December 7—Tigers vs. Dormitory; Alert vs. Service.
December 10—P. B. C. vs. Tigers.
December 14—Athletics vs. Dormitory.

KOLOA JAPANESE WIN

First Series After Well Played Game With Makaweli Team

KOLOA, October 10.—With a score of 5 to 0, the Koloa team of the Japanese league defeated the Makaweli team and became the winners of the first series. The game was played on the Koloa diamond and was attended by an enthusiastic gathering. The whole series proved the little men fast players and every team has made good.
Plans are now on foot for the Junior Baseball League under the direction of C. Maur, president pro tem, to play off a series of games in the near future.

CRAVATH THE MIGHTY

Following is a part of the story telling how the Phillies beat the Giants in the game of September 10.
"With the score a 3 to 3 tie in the eighth inning, Cactus Cravath came to the bat with the bases filled and a tie ball, winning for the Phillies by a score of 7 to 3."
"This blow was the twenty-first home run of the season for the Philadelphia outfielder."
NOW IT'S TWENTY TWO
Twenty-two home runs in a season is no small feat for a baseball player to accomplish. The great Schultz did it in 1911 and now "Cactus" Cravath, the star outfielder of the Philadelphia Nationals, has even a greater honor. "Cactus" recently smashed out his twenty-second home run. Cravath says he is just getting his bat into trim for the world's series.

Rock Freeman hit twenty-five home runs in 1913 for the Washington club in the National league.
Dr. G. W. Sims, defeated as a candidate for city commissioner in the recent election at San Antonio, Texas, shot and killed himself in his office. Doctor Sims financed the campaign of the defeated candidates in the recent election, and is believed to have lost between $20,000 and $25,000 in this way.

PLAYERS TO GO UP

The American association is sending, or will send, a large squad to the majors next year. The list is: St. Louis Nationals takes Clemens from Kansas City and Hall, Dreesen, Craig-Williams, Steele and Glenn from St. Paul; Washington takes Harper, Ghar-rity, Jennings and Holland from Minneapolis; Comiskey takes Johns and Davis from Columbus, and New York Americans take Tipple from Indianapolis, Alexander from Kansas City and Shelton from Columbus, and McGraw gets Dwyer from St. Paul.

AMERICANS HAVE WON EIGHT TIMES

Boston Annexes a World's Championship Every Time Team Was a Competitor

Another world's series has passed into history. Twelve times have the pennant winners of the American League and the National League fought for the highest honors in the baseball world. Eight times the title has fallen to the American League team and four times has it fallen to the National League team. Of the eight championships won by the American League teams, Boston has captured three, every time they started in the classic, Philadelphia four and Chicago one. Pittsburgh won one, New York one and Chicago two for the National League. In 1904, the Red Sox won the pennant for the American League and the Giants won in the National League but Manager John McGraw had a grievance and declined to play his team against the American League champions.

By the above record it is seen that the American League is the class of the two major organizations. In the twelve times the prize has been played for the American League has shown a superiority in every department of the game in eight of those series. Of the four losers in the American League Detroit fell in three series and the Athletics once.

It is a far cry from Honolulu to Boston and Philadelphia, where the series just closed were played and no fan can explain the defeat of the Phillies unless it was that Boston showed the better strength in the pitchers box, made their hits count and had all the breaks of the game.

This much is certain. The supporters of the Philadelphia team ranked too much on the stamina of Grover Cleveland Alexander and did not give the young men of the Boston's pitching staff the credit due them. William J. Carrigan was so situated in the series that he could send in a different pitcher every game, four of them light handed and three of them left handed. The best Philadelphia had was Alexander and May and neither of them lived up to expectations according to the Associated Press despatches. Again it is evident from the number of hits recorded by the Phillies that Cravath, Luderus, Becker, Whitted, Bancroft, Paskert and others who were expected to hit, did not come through.

Summing up the entire situation, Boston made their hits count while the Phillies did not and Boston's pitchers showed themselves the better of the Philadelphia men, and for these reasons another world's series went to the American League.

Many of the wisemen, Damon Runyon and others (including the writer) liked the Phillies to win. Carrigan's men were too strong with the bat and in the box for the Moran crew and these are the reasons why Boston gets the long end of the spoils.

Dr. G. W. Sims, defeated as a candidate for city commissioner in the recent election at San Antonio, Texas, shot and killed himself in his office. Doctor Sims financed the campaign of the defeated candidates in the recent election, and is believed to have lost between $20,000 and $25,000 in this way.

PINKHAM ACTING ON OWN VOLITION GIVES FREEDOM TO $70 FORGER

At Home, He Calls For Papers And Then Sends Official To Prison, Where Former Waiter Is Found At Piano and Freed

SEQUEL TO CRITICISM OF ASHFORD'S DECISION

Verdict Causes More Talk Than World's Baseball Series and War, Leniency To Bank Defaulters Being Bitterly Denounced

RICHARD RAMOS, the former Filipino waiter at the Roselawn, who was convicted of raising a seven-dollar check to seventy dollars and sentenced on Tuesday by Judge Ashford to one week's imprisonment at hard labor in the territorial penitentiary and to pay a fine of $200 and the costs of court, which amounted to three dollars and fifty cents, is a free man.

Ramos was pardoned by Governor Pinkham at three o'clock yesterday afternoon and shortly afterward he left the prison. The pardon is a full one and removes the stigma of the charge on which he was convicted.

The pardon was given on the initiative of Governor Pinkham. No friends of Ramos asked executive clemency. No special committee of the territorial grand jury which indicted Ramos asked the Governor to intercede.

Ramos Finds Friend At Last

The only openly avowed friend of the Filipino was the Governor himself. In a statement given to The Advertiser the Governor gives the reasons which swayed him in pardoning the man.

The Governor was not in his office yesterday afternoon. He has not been feeling well and had retired to his cottage in the residence grounds of Dr. Charles B. Cooper. He directed Attorney-General Staiback, however, to prepare the usual form of pardon required in such cases. This was done and George R. Clark, private secretary of the Governor, sent Chris Holt of the office of the Secretary of Hawaii to the residence of the Governor with the pardon.

Ramos At Piano When Pardoned

The Governor signed the pardon and directed Holt to take it to High Sheriff Jarrett at the territorial prison. Jarrett was out when Holt arrived. Holt found Ramos playing "It's a Long, Long Way To Tipperary" on the office piano. Ramos is an accomplished musician. Rev. Father Valentin, who happened to have been present, said: High Sheriff Jarrett said last night that he was glad to see Ramos go, but he was sorry to lose a good musician.

Ramos was released from prison almost at the same moment he was registered there. It happened that he remained at the city jail after he was sentenced on Tuesday and was only sent across to the penitentiary yesterday afternoon. The high sheriff was absent when his new prisoner arrived. While waiting for the arrival of the official, whose duty it was to register him, Ramos entertained himself and a few others who happened to be in the office at the piano.

Regarded a Fortunate Man

The waiter is regarded as a particularly fortunate man among his fellows. Ordinarily he would have been sentenced to three years and a half in prison for his crime, but it happened that his sentence was reserved until Louis Abrams and Frank L. Hoogs pleaded guilty of embezzlement and were sentenced.

When Abrams, whose original defalcations amounted, it is claimed, to $26,500, and Hoogs, whose defalcations reached $10,400, were each sentenced to pay a fine of $1000 and the costs of court, amounting in each case to three dollars and fifty cents, Ramos was sentenced by Judge Ashford to one week in prison and to pay a fine of $200 and the costs of court, likewise three dollars and fifty cents.

Pardon Is Much Discussed
Abrams and Hoogs paid their fines and costs and became free men. Ramos went to prison. The Governor's pardon, however, has saved him from prison and wiped out his fine and costs.

When the Governor's action became known late yesterday afternoon much favorable comment was expressed by men in official and other circles. The pardon, while unexpected, caused no surprise and was taken as a matter of course.

The sentences imposed by Judge Ashford on Abrams, Hoogs and Ramos were the subject of much comment throughout the city. Almost without exception surprise was voiced over the fact that Abrams and Hoogs had escaped without jail sentences of any kind.

Expectations Not Realized

It had been expected that some sentence, however light, other than a mere monetary fine, would be given these men. Many were indignant over the fact that Hoogs and Abrams had been so lightly dealt with. Many had expected Abrams to get off lighter than Hoogs, because of the former's age. Again and again Judge Ashford's terse charge to the territorial grand jury, after this body had returned a no bill in Hoogs' case, was recalled and quoted.

It can be said that the cases of Hoogs, Abrams and Ramos attracted more public attention yesterday than the latest developments of the war in Europe and the fact that the Red Sox had won the world's championship. Coming on top of all this, the pardon granted to Ramos will furnish considerable more food for discussion.

Abrams Out of Office

It developed yesterday, on the authority of J. R. Galt, manager of the Hawaiian Trust Company, that shortly after Abrams' return from San Francisco the latter had been asked to resign as secretary and director of that institution. This had been previously denied, Mr. Galt having been quoted as saying that if Mr. Abrams had resigned he had heard nothing about it.

Referring to comment made on the sentences imposed Tuesday by Judge Ashford, City Attorney Brown said yesterday that in the case of Ramos the judge had no alternative, under the law, except to sentence him to jail and to a fine. In the case of Abrams and Ramos, Mr. Brown said, the sentence was discretionary with the judge. He thought the action of the special committee of the grand jury, which had indicted both Abrams and Hoogs, in asking Judge Ashford for leniency, had much to do with the nature of the sentences passed upon them.

GERMAN RESOURCES GREATEST, IS CLAIM

BERLIN, September 22.—Germany has not reached the limit of her military efforts, while her foes are drawing near the end of their resources, declares Major Morath, the military critic of the Berliner Tageblatt, in a review of the present status of the belligerents.

In his review, an abstract of which is given by the Overseas News Agency, he points out that Germany places the military age limit at forty-five and has not even registered younger than twenty, while France, he says, is preparing to send to the front in December nineteen-year-old boys and is unable to relieve from service on the fighting lines soldiers who are even more than forty-five years old.

Boys of eighteen years are fighting in the Russian front line, mixed with older troops, he declares, while England, fearing that Russia would make a separate peace, recently landed additional troops on the Continent.
"All this means," continues Major Morath, according to the news agency abstract, "that the utmost efforts are being made by the allies to improve their situation by desperate means."

The military writer declares that the German army headquarters has determined to continue the prosecution of its campaign against the retreating Russian armies.

KAUAI HIGH SCHOOL RECEIVES FINE GIFTS

Mrs. Hans Isenberg has presented a fine set of books to the library of the High school of Kauai. The set consists of twenty volumes and is an especially valuable reference work for students. The gift is a very generous one, and is greatly appreciated by the pupils and teachers of the school.

During the week a large one-volume history of the Panama Canal was received from the department of public instruction.
Large portraits of President Washington and President Lincoln and two fine pictures of the Forum and Coliseum were recently placed at the High school. The pictures were purchased from the Christmas gift received from Lihue school last winter, and the framing was a present from Mrs. Ralph Wilcox.

These pictures add greatly to the attractiveness of the school rooms and have a real educational value.—Garden Island.

FILIPINO NEWSPAPER TO BE PUBLISHED HERE

A Filipino newspaper will be published in Honolulu, beginning October 30. The paper will be edited by Pablo Manlapit, president of the Filipino Laborers' Association of Hawaii. Until recently he was the publisher of a Filipino paper in Hilo. The aim of the paper will be to uplift the Filipinos and teach them their relation to the United States as citizens, and harmony with the residents of Hawaii. The paper will be printed in Visayan and Tagalog, the principal dialects of the Filipinos.

ANOTHER PLASTER IS STUCK ON WEATHERWAX

A third libel suit was filed in the admiralty division of the local federal court yesterday against the American schooner J. M. Weatherwax, her tackle, apparel, boats, furniture, and appurtenances. In this case the plaintiffs are the master, mates and crew of the vessel. They want her sold, together with her cargo of 400,000 feet of lumber, claiming that it was through their special and extra efforts that the vessel and cargo were saved.

The suit is brought by William L. Eyres, master; Charles Karlson, first mate; John Carmichael, second mate; H. B. Davis, steward; and Neil Morrison, Frank Calve, Henry Williams and William Morris, members of the crew. The papers were served yesterday, copies of the complaint and summons being attached to the main mast of the vessel.

In the first suit, filed last week, the crew libeled the owners and vessel for wages. The papers were served on the master as representative of the owners. The second suit was brought by the master, who wants $1225 paid to him, the papers being filed on the first mate.
